24 Mark Road, Russell Island

Situated in Mark Road, just one house block off the water, this 588 m2 block is a cracker. This block is situated in such a position that it is back off the road in a cul d sac style position with no vehicles driving past the front door. The aerial map shows the vacant block in the yellow highlighted boarder. From a high set home, the water views should be astounding, and even from a low set, the water views are good.

As an added bonus, the existing owners have planted fruit trees which are mature and fruiting beautifully.
