29 Gilcrest Road, Russell Island

Russell Island

Rustic Home on Large block with Waterviews

Looking to retire to the island and take in that laid back relaxed lifestyle that we are well known for but cannot find a property to suite that has character, is within budget, on a huge flat level block of land fully landscaped and fully fenced, garage for both car and work shed, on a sealed road and water views.

This home is a gem within the price bracket. We know there are newer homes within the price bracket, but none have a double block fully landscaped and fully fenced, none have water views, very very few are on a sealed road, and once again very very few are on a concrete pad at ground level for ease of access.

Home itself is older style, base construction is core filled concrete block, and solid as a rock. Inside does need some upgrading, but this home has something most do not have, and that's an absolute massive living/rumpus area that surrounds two sides of the home. This really is where all the living is done; lounge room proper is used as a TV area only.

A must view home if you are looking in this price bracket.
