

20 Koro Street, Russell Island

Low Maintenance Brick Home

There are not too many brick homes on the market on the Island, and this is one of them. Situated in Koro Street which has only very recently been sealed and is within easy walking distance to the Bowls Club, or in the other direction it's an even easier walk to look at the stunning views across the western channel to the mainland.

Block is only small at 491m², meaning outside maintenance on lawns etc is limited, being built of brick, again maintenance is limited.

This home is very well suited to the retired or to the investor where tenants can move in with limited work to be done.
