Lot 227 24 Cypress Avenue, Russell Island

Owner wants urgent sale ASAP

Owner needs an urgent sale and has priced the block accordingly, and will look at offers close to this figure This flat, slightly sloping block is situated in Cypress Avenue, Just off Hume street approx half way down the Island on the eastern side. It does have a few trees, and the block has been reasonably well maintained by the neighbours for their own pleasure. Adjoining the rear of the block are two near new well maintained owner occupied homes. Once upon a time, the blocks in this area were considered isolated, but not any more with the development happening in the area. Russell Island is a flood free area, and is possibly one of the safest havens in South East Queensland in most respects.
