

4-6 Laurel Street, Russell Island

Project on double block in town centre

Looking for a project to do that has location, on a double block, and only minutes walk to the village centre. This property has only just hit the market by a willing vendor. The house itself will fall into one of two categories by potential buyers, either as a project to renovate, or project to remove. This property comes with a double block on separate titles, with rich, red soil, beautiful established 15 year old tree's, and is only metres from sealed High street. Make the owner an offer close to listed price that he cannot resist, and the property will be yours.
