Give me LAND, lots of LAND

Are you one of those people looking for the great escape, where you have more land then you know what to do with in an area with very few residents, but close enough to towns where you can drive too and from comfortably. How does 12 Hectares of land, with 3 dams, partially fenced, a humpy to use when your there, or pitch a tent or two if more accommodation is needed, sealed all weather driveway into the property, and the list goes on. Owner has made a sea change and is now looking to sell. Other option is a swap for a double block on Russell Island. This 12 HA, is situated between Dalby and Tara, and is part of a number of small HA lots in the same area. Current owner just runs his generator for power when required, water is dam water. Imagine the kids on the trail bikes having all the fun in the world without annoying neighbours, camp fires every night if you wish, make all noise you want of a night time. This place just screams fun, fun and more fun.
