

2 Jasper Street, Russell Island

Water View Block - Northern End of Island

Situated on the Eastern Side of the Island, overlooking the magnificent Canaipa Passage, this block is in an excellent location.

Serviced by sealed Jasper Street, and only metres from the expansive water views of the Canaipa Passage, this block is a rare find in today's market. Access to the waters of the Canaipa Passage is just metres away where you can keep the tinny or launch the canoe and play on the water all day.

At 602m2, with a huge 20 metre frontage it is a new home owners delight, build high and really open up those views that may never be lost.

If your seeking a new building block, or wanting an investment for the future, this block cannot be overlooked.
