

12 Ilumba Street, Russell Island

Give away price Flat Excellent Block close to town

Situated in the top half of the Island, this flat all but cleared block has come on the market at a fantastic price.

On a sealed road, power and water running past, this will make the ideal building block for the investment home, or your own little piece of paradise. Only a couple minutes to the village by car, water views just down the street within very easy walking distance, and a growing location with houses popping up all around.
