72 Crescent Drive, Russell Island

Big, Flat with filtered water glimpses

That's right folks, at 728m², flat and level with water glimpses. They do not get much better than this for the money. With only one tree on the block this will be one of the easiest blocks to get a permit to build on.

Situated almost at the southern end of the island and only a very small walk to Sandy Beach and Lions Park. This has to be a block to look at when seeking your next purchase. Power and water running past the block, sealed road, wheelie bin service and the list goes on. A highset home would take advantage of the excellent water views gained from the top floor.
