STONE HOME - One of a KIND

This is possibly one of the most distinguished houses on the Island, and the only one of it's kind here which was beautifully built with absolute love and attention to detail by the builder.

The quality of craftsmanship in this home is exceptional, and potential purchasers in the past have compared this property to similar properties they have seen built overseas, and it passed with flying colours.

Built from solid stone, and enhanced with timber, this two bedroom home plus fully self contained one bedroom flat is a show piece to be proud of.

Main house consists of kitchen, lounge, two bedrooms and bathroom, and the separate one bedroom flat is fully self contained including laundry facilities, and the two are separated by a large undercover deck which is brilliant for entertaining. Just off the deck is an imported Russian sauna, plus a 6 seater spa to enhance those evenings of entertainment in this spectacular house.

As a major BONUS. all furniture and electronics are included in the price
